I worked for a little more than two years as a assistant in the law firm of my father, Dr. Juan Pablo Corvalan.

My tasks included:
- Completing the templates for lawsuits with customer's data.
- Receiving and presenting official documentation in court.
- Receiving the payments of the clients.
- Filing the documents.
- Perform techical support tasks in the IT area.

EDUCATION

TOEFL IBT EXAM — 2021
TOEFL ETS

Achieving a total score of 95 out of 120 points.

PROGRAMMER ANALYST — 2021 - PRESENT
UAI — Interamerican Open University

I'm currently halfway through the career of Programmer Analyst, which is a technical career that belongs to the Faculty of Information Technology of the UAI.

WEB DEVELOPMENT — 2017 - PRESENT
INDEPENDENT COURSES

Since 2017 I've been taking programming courses related to web, and multiplatform development, be it online or attendance-based, in institutes like EducacionIT, Udemy, or ED.Team.

I started with PHP, MySQL, and JQuery, but nowadays my main focus of study is on React. Including technologies like Next JS, NodeJS, Typescript, MongoDB, among others.

EXTRACURRICULAR EDUCATION

- ENGLISH LANGUAGE – 2010 – 2015 & 2018 – 2021
  CUI – University Languages Center, of the University of Buenos Aires

  I studied English Language since I started the highschool, but I stopped when I finished it.

  Then, in the second half of 2018, I decided to seriously resume my studies at CUI, until september of 2021, when I took the TOEFL IBT test and achieved a total score of 95 out of 120.
- JAPANESE LANGUAGE – 2019 - PRESENT
  CUI – University Languages Center, of the University of Buenos Aires

  I've been studying Japanese language for 3 years now, reaching an intermediate level.

  I'm currently planning to go on a study trip to Japan, to improve my language skills, somewhere in 2021 or 2022.
